The Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) is an undergraduate degree in liberal arts. About half of coursework includes general education classes. A Bachelor of Music (B.M.) is an undergraduate degree focusing on music, and about two-thirds of the coursework (or more) focuses on music, preparing the student for a music career. College Board has information available with typical majors, related majors, and specific careers listed on the right-side of the page <https://bigfuture.collegeboard.org/majors/arts-visual-performing-music-music>

Interested in majoring in Theater Arts? College Board's site offers more information with typical majors, related majors, and specific careers listed on the right-side of the page: <https://bigfuture.collegeboard.org/majors/arts-visual-performing-theater-arts-theater-arts>

Interested in majoring in Fine Arts? Both B.A. and B.F.A degrees are available, and College Board's site offers more information with typical majors, related majors, and specific careers listed on the right-side of the page: <https://bigfuture.collegeboard.org/majors/arts-visual-performing-theater-arts-theater-arts>
