Scholarships:

There are many scholarships available to help with the costs of college. Some may reduce the amount of available aid, so scholarships and financial aid can impact each other. Some scholarships are for one year only, and others are renewable each year—sometimes with eligibility requirements. Grants and scholarships are gift aid, and are not repaid. Some scholarships require a FAFSA to be filed. There are all kinds of scholarships available—but watch out for scholarship scams. You should never pay for a scholarship tip. The Judah Christian Scholarship Bulletin is updated periodically and available on RenWeb. Individual colleges and universities also offer scholarships, so visit school scholarship links regularly throughout college.
